

Getting In: The ultimate guide to creating an outstanding portfolio, earning scholarships & securing your spot at Art School

By Nancy Crawford
Morgan James Publishing
ISBN# 978-1630473334

In this book, author Nancy Crawford draws on her thirty years of experience as an artist and art instructor to help students fulfill their dreams of getting into the post-secondary institutions of choice. She provides a comprehensive and solid understanding of how to prepare a good portfolio and successfully apply to art colleges, together with topics related to personal development as an artist, and community contributions and challenges.

This well-planned and easy-to-read book provides a step-by-step program for outlining artistic and creative goals, successful art school application, strategies for maximizing creativity, and a number of ways to create a unique and exceptional portfolio. Crawford also provides templates on-line that can be used by art instructors and students together with the information from the book.

Any secondary school art teacher will find this an extremely valuable resource to help them prepare and direct their students towards a successful post-secondary art education.

*Reviewed by Melanie Stokes
SD#43*